Girl knock it off, you know you cant
She think Im cute, she wanna have sex
Girl knock it off, you know you cant have this

Verse 1:

And she tell me run that, and I tell her run it
And she never seen a trick until she met my magic stick

And after we did it she was walkin with a limp
Bust it open leave wet and you know I leave it soaked
Who next i dont even close, I stay open\

I asked her name then I said I wanna fuck
And Im YG, you know I fucked
And she fucked back a little, and she fell in love
And she feel stupid cuz you know, I toot it and boot it

I met her at the club, then i said wassup?

Walked in the club with all fly thangs
Im in the back girl you know where to find me
And off top she think Im cute
And she dont even wanna tell me what she wanna do
Its me and my crew her and her friends
And they all tryin to leave with us when the club ends
And she toot from the back and you know she made it

And you know I run it back, like
Only for one night and she know Im on like a switch on a light
Aye girl I can have you feelin right, I can supply the

Only just make sure its tight
We can do it one day only for one night
And after that you gotta go cuz you aint my wife

I met her at the club, then i said wassup?
