Both of us talking
Ain't nobody giving an inch... such a shame
The beat of our hearts
They're just so far apart
That we can't even feel the pain

So tell me how long
Can we go on this way... not another day
Well you know it's so sad
To watch a good love go so bad... just thrown away

Give a little love
Give a little love

Both of us talking
Ain't nobody listening at all... it's such a sin
It's time we start facing
This love we are wasting
Ain't never gonna come back again

Just tell me how long
Can we go on this way... not another day
You know it's so sad
To watch a good love go so bad... just thrown away

Give some love
Got to let her know
Take some time
You got to give her some time
Give a little love
Just a little love
Give her some love
Just a little love
Give a little love
Changing like the weather
So hard to stay together
It's hard to give that much all the time
We've got to stop and give back
We're on the wrong track
We're coming to the end of the line

Just tell me how long
Can we keep holding on...not another day
You know it's so wrong
To let a love that was so strong...just slip away
You got to give a little love to get a little love
We're gonna have to make up our minds
Take a little..make a little time
To put our hearts together tonight

Give a little love... Just a little love
Give a little love
Give a little love
Give a little love
Give some love
Give a little love
Take some time
Give a little love
