"Next To You"

No matter where I go or which way the wind blows me
I know onething for certain
As sure as the sunrise you wept behind my sad eyes
I'm over you but now my dream will have to do

[Chorus:]

When my heart is missing you
I know just what to do
I close my eyes and count to ten
And I'll be next to you
When the night is turning cold
A darker shade of blue
I'll hold my breath and make a wish
And I'll be next to you

I'll rise alone to the heat of my desire
The flame of love is still alive
It's so extraordinary when you come to me
Time will never take away this smile

[Chorus]

It's so extraordinary baby, come to me
I believe you're here with me tonight
