You know girl, all my life
I've been looking for someone like you
And you know true love
Is so hard to find

Since we've been together
True love is forever
So let's be lovers for life

We're meant for each other ain't no doubt in my mind
We were put here together that's the way love's designed
So that we could be happy it's up to us to decide This incredible feeling could be passing us by What's the point in giving up when, when we're doing fine
We don't need to be lonely when our love is so right
I wanna be true

Chorus:

True lovers who care for each other let's be two
Two lovers, lovers for life I wanna be true
True lovers who cherish each other, lovers forever,
True lovers for life

I know what makes you happy, I know what makes you cry
I know how to excite you mke it last thru the night
All that we been through it's been me and you
You stood right by my side

Don't you think that it would be crazy if we just let it all die
What's the point in giving up when we're doing fine
We don't need to be lonely when our love is so right
I wanna be true

Chorus

Didn't it seem like things were just right
Didn't we have it all Tell me girl what went wrong, why couldn't we hold on didn't it feel right, didn't seem like, didn't we have a ball

What is the point in love, if we're giving up
Can't we just be strong, why can't we be true

Chorus

Now we're true lovers for life
True lovers for life
Yes we're true lovers for life
