My mistake, the fault is mine
For lovin this way for such a long time
The blame falls here, I've been wrong
Who'd a thought I'd be goin through this
For giving my all
That's what I get for lovin you
That's what I get for staying true
I guess I deserve to give and to lose
That's what I get for lovin you
To love with all my heart
Wasn't good enough
I never thought you'd say
That I'm lovin too much
And to hear it from you
Cuts deeper than I can say
I've always loved you
Even though you may not feel the same
That's what I get for lovin you
That's what I get for staying true
I guess I deserve to give and to lose

That's what I get for lovin you
I'm the lover when love fails so secondly
I'm the giver when you long to take
I'm the suffering though I've done all I can
I'm the heart of this but I'm broken hearted
That's what I get for lovin you, baby
That's what I get for staying true
I guess I deserve to give and to lose you
That's what I get for lovin you
That's what I get for lovin you
That's what I get, oh, that's what I get
I guess I deserve, that's what I get
That's what I get for lovin you, for stayin true
I guess I loved too much
Ohh, I don't wanna love too much
The games that I've lost
For lovin you
