Order in the court, my heart is on trial.
I solemnly swear it's true.
If there's been a crime, my darling then I'm
So guilty of loving you.

When we kiss goodnight I hold you so tight.
This is your biggest clue.
I could plead insane, but what would I gain
I'm guilty of loving you.

Chorus:
Anyone in town is your witness
I've told everyone I know
Give me 99 years of your lovin'
Cause I'm guilty of wanting you so.

So put me anywhere but please no solitaire
In a prison that's made for two.
You don't have to guess, I really must confess
I'm guilty of loving you.

Chorus:
Anyone in town is your witness
I've told everyone I know
Give me 99 years of your lovin'
Cause I'm guilty of wanting you so.

So put me anywhere but please no solitaire
In a prison that's made for two.
You don't have to guess, I really must confess
I'm guilty of loving you.
