Well, I just shy away
My face gets red
I just shy away
I lose my head

There's many things
That I'd like to say
But I always shy away

I saw you were
Standing by your locker
As I went strolling by
Well, I'm not much at flirting
And I'm not a talker but
I just had to wink my eye

Then I just shy away
My face gets red
I just shy away
I lose my head

There's many things
That I'd like to say
But I always shy away

Well, I looked at my watch
And time was flying
Too soon the bell would ring
I had to move fast but
My nerves didn't last and
I just couldn't say a thing

Cause I just shy away
My face gets red
I just shy away
I lose my head

There's many things
That I'd like to say
But I always shy away

Well, now I finally got my

Nerve and I walked right up
And you seemed to understand
We both started talking
While we were walking
And you took me by the hand

And I didn't shy away
And lose my head
I didn't shy away
Or my face get red

Right then and there
I knew I fell in love with you
You shied away instead
You shied away instead
