Chorus:

Hey come away to Belize with me, show you how simple life can be

Long hazy days in the sun,

Where it seems everyone has a smile when we meet

Under blue skies and emerald seas, warm winds and those coconut trees

They say your heart never leaves, once you've been down to Belize

In daylight the sunlight chases the grey lights of lingering night

Down by the beach a lone heron he keeps

His eye on the fish and the tide

But I hear the boats, of the fisherman going to the flats where the bonefishes run

And the folks of San Pedro, all driving the same road, start their long day in the sun

Chorus

So, let's get a boat, and some snorkels and go on out to the reef

We'll leave the fat folks, who wear shoes and white socks with cameras back on the beach

There's no pain or sorrow, down by the coral and Susan and Brownie and me

And we'll fish by the reef, for some snappers to eat, as we race the ray back to the beach

Chorus

So at sunset we'll go sit, way out on the old deck, till the pink light is gone

From a funky old bar, I can hear a guitar playing, playing a down island song

The moon on the water, the pina colada, something you just gotta see

And that's when you start to notice your heart, has fallen in love with Belize

Chorus
