Oh my dearest darling - you're on my mind tonight
Now that spring is coming I see the leaves are bright
But when I read your letters I remember those lines
Oh no, deeper than love

Oh that mountain music, it makes me think of you
When I hear that mountain music I want you to hear it, too
But when I read your letters I remember those lines
Oh no, it's deeper than love

It's a simple beat of a heart, like a glove on the hand of time
Been so long we've been apart - when I remember your life,
I remember mine

Oh my dearest darling, I'm no one's sweetheart now I thought love was behind me but it's always you somehow
And when I read your letters I remember those lines
Oh no, it's deeper than love

Like a simple beat of heart, it's a glove on the hand of
time
It's been so long we've been apart - when I remember your life
I still remember mine, yeah, I remember mine
