Jerry Jeff Walker

Take it from me it's a mystery, where all my money goes
How I make it week to week, only God almighty knows Tonight's the night, I make it right, I'm fixin' to go into town Buy all the drinks, kiss all the girls, spread my charming self around

Chorus:

Tonight I wanna rock and roll my baby, maybe dance a dance or two with yours Crowd up to the bar and order whiskey then I want to hang out till they close the doors Tonight my soul is young and wild and frisky, I can't stop this urge I've got to laugh Now if you find my attitude offensive, well honey that's just too damn bad

Well I've seen it in the papers, how Jerry Jeff is getting old
He's an aging desperado, too old now to rock and roll Well at least I know I was one, not a writer talkin' to the wall

In fact I want it written down here, I lived long enough to do it all

Chorus

I'll get to feeling so damn good, I'll have to have a new tattoo
I'll catch a cab and go uptown and get some new taps put on my shoes
I have to go to Antone's joint to get right inside some funky blues
Then wind up dancing at the Spoke and sittin' in 'til way past two

Chorus
