Goodbye was the very easy word for you to say

But then you never cared the way I do

Your love was all that kept me going

Now that its gone

Where can I turn but to the only friends I ever knew

Going to back to

Bottles and Barstools these are the favorite tools

Of any lonely fool who needs to forget

They tell me friends in need are truly friends in deed

And Bottles and Barstools have never failed me yet

Solo

Well our love can be summed up in 25 words or less

Just another flame that never made a fire

And shoulders to cry on are an easy thing to find

Just look for any set of lights that spell out B-A-R

Well I am going to back to

Bottles and Barstools these are the favorite tools

For any lonely fool who needs to forget

Well they tell me friends in need are truly friends in deed

And Bottles and Barstools have never failed me yet

Yes Bottles and Barstools ain't failed ol' Jerry Lee yet

Ah set me up one more....
