Yes old father time has done took its tole, at reducing the killer to nothing but on the way I must admit , Hes had a little help from me

Ive seen my dreams die and fall like leaves when they turn brown
Ive fallen to the bottom workin' my way down

I climbed the ladder of success , that led to my distruction
I thought that fame and fortune was the key to happiness but neighbors when I failed at love , I failed at life the truth I finally found fallen to the bottom workin' my way down

Im drowning in a river of mistakes and memories

A good womans love is what need now so desperatley the mirror of my life (my god) reflects the blind fool I am

fallen to the bottom workin' my way down
fallen to the bottom workin' my way down
