When my blue moon turns to gold again
When the rainbows turn the clouds away
When my blue moon turns to gold again
I'll be back within your arms to stay

When the memories that linger in my hearts
Those memories they make [Incomprehensible]
Well, some day, some day they gonna live again, sweetheart
And my blue moon again will turn to gold

Well, when my blue moon turns to gold again
When the rainbows turn the clouds away
When my blue moon turns to gold again
I'll be back within your arms to stay

Well, when my blue moon turns to gold again
Oh, when the rain drops turn the clouds away
Oh, when my blue moon turns to gold again
I'll be back within your arms to stay
I'll be back within your arms to stay
I'll be back within your arms to stay
I'm coming back within your arms to stay
