So it's raining again,
And the winds are gonna roar,
I've been swept through the street
To be washed up at your door;
But you're with him I know,
So I'll crawl back later on.
Why do I still need you so?
But for love, I'd be gone.

[CHORUS]

But for love, I'd be gone
On a jet leavin' today
For a place in the sun... far away.

I don't remember the next verse, but the song ends
with

... So I say to myself
You fool, why do you linger on?
And my heart cries out to me,
But for love, I'd be gone.

[Repeat CHORUS]
