A misery loves company misery loves company

I just left my home friends where I couldn't sleep
For thinkin' bout a woman that I couldn't keep
She walked out and she left me for somebody else Now her memory keeps hauntin' me when I'm by myself

So break out the bottle bring on the crowd
Tell funny stories turn the jukebox loud
Come sit at my table where the drinks are on me
Yes gather round me cause misery loves company
Well let me tell you a misery loves company
Misery loves company

Well I'm not the first one that's lost everything
To a false hearted woman with a false hearted scheme
But this is the first time I've suffered myself Help me get over this love help get over next love all by myself

So break out the bottle bring on the crowd...
