My Next Impersonation
Composer - Shel Silverstein
Artist - Jerry Reed

Now for my first impersonation friends I would like to do for you
A simple lovin' family man with a simple attitude See him loved by friends and neighbors see the self-respect he gains
See him warm see him tender watch him change

Now for my next impersonation I'd like to do a restless man
Who now holds wine and night life in his inexperienced hands
See him juggling all the pieces as he tries to grab 'em all
See him tempted see him falter watch him fall

But stick around friends cause the best is yet to come
When you see my impression of a man who's a steady
cryin'
Nail chewin' chain smokin' bum

Well friends I see you have seen enough and you're
ready to go
So let me hear one rousin' cheer as I close my show
With this portrait of a wasted fool who let his world slip
by
See him crawl see him crumble hear him cry

But stick around friends cause the best is yet to come...
When you see my impression of a man who's a steady
cryin'
Nail chewin' chain smokin' bum

ready to go...
So let me hear one rousin' cheer as I close my show
With this portrait of a wasted fool who let his world slip
by

See him crawl see him crumble hear him cry

And for my last impersonation watch him die
