Hollow, the devil's eyes
Besiege and clever lies, he'll pull you under Won't let you up for air
Try to reason, there's no fucking answer
Try to leave he's like a fucking cancer
No conscience, he doesn't get it, doesn't get it

He's like a cancer, he won't let go
He'll hit the bottom and then come back for more
No surrender, repeat offender
He's got the courage, he's got the courage

Don't come calling now
When your two stone throws away from your own grave
You're back to the wall, you're at the bottom of the well
Two bridges down, only one to burn
I'm singin' now, three bridges down nothing left to burn

I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down

He's living underneath that black cloud downtown
If he comes around, it thunders and it pours Renelly makes a dirty living from cheating, double cross and stealing
Heartless, no soul, he reeks of filth, so I'm told

He's like a cancer, he won't let go
He'll hit the bottom and then come back for more
No surrender, repeat offender
He's got the courage, he's got the courage

Don't come calling now
When your two stone throws away from your own grave
You're back to the wall, you're at the bottom of the well
Two bridges down, only one to burn
I'm singin' now, three bridges down nothing left to burn

I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down

I've seen it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, this town is burning down

I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down

I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
I've seen it, you said it, this town is burning down
