I'm missing your face
I'm missing your face
'Cause I wish the time could never end

Missin' you, wishin' to
To be kissin' you, you
All the things that we used to do
And I can't be next to you

Have you ever lost a love one?
And it can come so many ways
Murder, giving them up
Or them simply running away

Sometimes the pain stays
Puttin' your mind is a daze
And then your body's walkin' a maze
But you're the only one encaged

Missin' you, wishin' to
To be kissin' you, you
All the things that we used to do
And I can't be next to you

I would give my last thing
If I knew it would make a difference
If I could turn back the hands of time
I would love you more and held you close

Sometimes the pain stays
Puttin' your mind is a daze
Havin' you body walking in a maze
But you're the only on encaged

Missin' you, wishin' to
To be kissin' you, you
All the things that we use to do
And I can't be next to you

Miss you, I wanna hold and kiss you
I'd give my last thing if I knew it'd make a difference
Miss you, I wanna hold and kiss you

I'd give my last thing if it would make a difference

Missin' you, wishin' to
To be kissin' you, you
All the things that we used to do
And I can't be next to you

Missin' you, wishin' to
To be kissin' you, you
All the things that we used to do
And I can't be next to you
