All the kids are bridge burning, throwing up their names
All the heads are street learning, stepping up their game

And I'll write the world, hey, hey
And I'll write it
And I'll write the world, hey, hey
And I'll write it
Write it yeah, write it all
All the city radiating not in this for the gains
All this is communicating it's own kinds of fame
Everything will work out, everything's fine
I the blacklisted cutting life with the red outlines I the blacklisted running life with the red outlines, I'm gone

Everything falls
What I'm saying, lost
Worlds the same, yeah
Everything breaks Breakdown, everything breaks, it all breaks down for me Breakdown, everything breaks, it all breaks down for
me
All the kids are still bombing, throwing up their names Right on, the heads will keep it coming, that'll never change
I'll write the world, hey, hey, I'll write it
I'll write the world, hey, hey, I'll write it Hey, hey, hey, write it
