Can I borrow your bones and marrow till i get my own
Lovely lovely lovely bones till i get my own
I won't tell my new friends that they're on loan
They won't know
It's no smart thing to do when you're far from home

Can I borrow your skin blushing to get lucky in Lucky lucky lucky lucky with a special friend
Well I hear that on planet earth that it's a sin big sin
We'll all the more fun for me to get lucky then

Oh I'm gonna be a baby girl
A round trip ticket to a blue planet
Flip a uuueyy at mars
Oh I'm gonna swim in the water first
Blowing up her belly though she didn't plan it
I took the invitation when she rocked the hammock
Pulling all the wild cards
And now I'm swinging from the stars
From an umbilical cord from an umbilical cord
From an umbilical cord feels like I've been here before

On my tongue on my tongue
I want your fingers on my tongue
I want some intelligent tactile
When foreign play things come
I'm gonna study 'em with my tongue
I want some intelligentactile 101

Can I borrow your hips and your lips
And your wink and curl
Is I is or is I ain't one flossy girl
I'm gonna paint that planet red
'Cause I'm in the world
In the world
And leave a trail of kisses when my loves unfurled

Will you steady my ground
Dizzy ground when I'm turned around
Dizzy dizzy dizzy ground
When I'm lost you'll found
Well I'm headed to planet earth to search the sound

Deep sound
So keep my compass wound when I'm on the ground

Oh I'm gonna be a baby girl
A round trip ticket to a blue planet
Flip a uuueyy at mars
Oh I'm gonna swim in the water first
Blowing up her belly though she didn't plan it
I took the invitation when she rocked the hammock
Pulling all the wild cards
And now I'm swinging from the stars
From an umbilical cord from an umbilical cord
From an umbilical cord feels like I've been here before

On my tongue on my tongue
I want your fingers on my tongue
I want some intelligent tactile
When foreign play things come
I'm gonna study 'em with my tongue
I want some intelligent tactile
On my tongue on my tongue
I want your fingers on my tongue
I want some intelligent tactile
When foreign play things come
I'm gonna study 'em with my tongue
I want some intelligent tactile 101
