They come and they go, my woes and my joy
I know getting attached to that temporal toil is ignorant
They ebb and they flo, my frowns and my smiles
I know getting attached to that miracle mile is ignorant

State of bliss, tell me are you happiness Something's gone terrible wrong if you are other than this
Turn out the sun, all of your golden days are gone
There's a world better than this one is your favorite song

They observe and then note the flux in your power Your efficiency in spinning your hour to hour is significant
Deserve and then don't your bouquet of flowers
The universal candy is bitter, sweet, salty and sour
Get used to it

State of bliss, tell me are you happiness
Something's gone terribly wrong if you are other than
Go get your gun, no need in leaving the safety on I'm going higher one day is your favorite song

Yeah, they come sure as they go
Yeah, they come sure as they go
So they come sure as they go
Yes, they come sure as they go
Sure as they go

Life within a life has ended and begun
Again my tune is sung
We sail into the sun, light and brightest night
Dark and dismal day has ended and begun
In out and in of one, we sail into the sun

Life within a life has ended and begun
In out and in of one
We sail into the sun

Life within a life has ended and begun

In out and in of one
We sail into the sun, light and brightest night
Dark and dismal day has ended and begun
In out and in of one, we sail into the sun
