You heard V is gonna sellout, well you betta check your sources
I'm roastin' all the psycophants and makin' 'em main courses
My appetites for ducks is double when they pull up lame
And all the suckas play the DL when they mention my name
The V ? But I gotta maintain from the start
The faint of heart were torn apart and new they shit's hilarious Precarious position makes ya' ponder on your part in this Check out any other and you'll find that there's more heart in this Clear if the scene if you got second thoughts
My words are acid rain as my message comes across Battles are ragin' but the wars just begun
And when I'm done you'll see my face on That's Incredible reruns
Spun from the fabric of the web called enlightenment
Hectic skeptics find that they can't right the man
With my people's unleashin'
I swarm and if the norm is to conform, I see much reason for treason

I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain
Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain
I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain
Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain

Best believe this shit's live cuz it sure ain't Memorex
I never rest when it comes to showin' whose the cleverest
I broaden your horizons, in my terf, I'm down to earth
And break it down as I'm always puttin' on the hurt
What's worse? MC's who can't kick ballistics?

Nah, it's MC's who can't cope just when the shit's thick I'm wit this flow without a doubt. That's what I'm talkin' about

The juggernaut who juggles styles you can't do without Even if you're ready I throw curves without a warnin'
Throw me in a swarm of hornets that's enormous
And I got no problems even when they're speedin' up And I can tell the heat's too much cuz the sweat is beadin' up
I get schiz to a feverish pitch up in this bitch
Don't even try to tackle this full-on blitz
Of rhymes designed to leave a strain on your brain and it don't stop
Until you're restin' in a ziplock

I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain
Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain
I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain
Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain

Take this riddle wrapped inside of an enigma
For some goin' for self is societal stigma
But my summations that I'll do anything whatever it takes
To create my own positive fate
Negative vibes are alive in this industry
Stemming from the stench of treacherous duplicity
No mystery to me, I'll kill that noise and deploy Cuz my boys got the poise to bring an end to evil ploys that destroy
But I'm above the whirlpool of drool
From suckas sucked in by their own half truths
It's ironic how they early demise was just the living proof
That brought their disillusion to a swift conclusion
And back in the day just like Paris said
They feel the grip of shame come crashing down upon their head
Take heed from The V who just be about the thought
I never will falsify or end up getting' caught

I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain
Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain
I gotta maintain
Plain & Simple, I gotta maintain

Check your temple, I gotta maintain
Maintain the tempo as the I'll side flows from my brain
