As I gain momentum, no one understand what I've been through
Repressed for years, but now I'm strivin' into Somethin' where deception does abound, I've found
As I'm comin' up and rollin' out I'm still beatin' down
They don't give a damn, just care about a gram
Bust the gameplan, V seeks revenge on Uncle Scam
White Housin' your set 'til there ain't nothin' left
My very last breath, never receivin' a single dime
Time after time, I've heard the preview
Whatcha gonna do when they come for you?
They bury, it's scary, are my days numbered?
Fuck that, I'm settin' up a deep, dark slumber, So
For the man I won't repay in kind
The verdict's in, guilty of killin' and frontin' bein' color blind
In charge he's livin' large almighty
But he better watch out for a menace to society.

Menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society
Menace ? menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society

When I creep up on the man there's no bluffin',
Make sure he's out cold, before I straight stuff'em
Deep in my pocket without remorse
Thoughts sicken since I'm wicked, so I thwart my own armed force
Shellshocked and dropped from a glock?
Do I have to come strapped, and peel his cap back?
Now the captain tries the hook, lookin' to repay me
So he fades me. It's time to get crazy
Watch your back or get the whiplash, pesident.
Speakin' with a forked tongue, the devil ain't heaven-
sent
Got his eyes on the prize
Power hungry so I hunger for his early demise
Corruptin' thoughts erupt to destruct and terrorize
He's evil incarnate in disguise
But if the scandal continues my friend

Backwards he's turned 'til he's smellin' what he's shovelin'
He don't know where I'm comin' from
And one look at me, you know I gets none
A native son yet I'm treated like a foreigner
He's gonna need a coroner
A little randsome, or, it's one mo' for the catchin'
To sum it all up, the scrubs a subtraction
Cut down into the ground, nowhere to be found
No longer messin' around with a menace to society.

Menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society
Menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society

Crazy loc in the wrong side of any town
Straight outta uptown or could it be the underground
Watch out, they plot a bumrush steady
But with a quick look, knew my posse's ready
For anythin' that jump off,
Still fightin' for my life, I cruised outside into the night
To prove whatever's wrong is now right
Watch the flame ignite, as the clock strikes midnight!
A loose grip on reality
The beast within me exploits the masquerade
Malevolent mind plottin' schemes and sordid dreams
Wreak havoc on his conscience, unleash all injustice What's this? A little bit of green for peace and tranquility
When I turn to hostility
I'mma take it to the furthest degree
The menace to society ain't goin' quietly

Menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society
Menace to society
Menace ? menace ? menace to society

Crazy loc in the wrong side of any town
I'm setting up a deep, dark slumber
Power hungry so I hunger for his early demise
He's evil incarnate in disguise
With a quick look, knew my posse's ready
Backwards he's turned 'til he's smellin' what he's
shovelin'
A loose grip on reality
So he fades me. It's time to get crazy
For the man, I won't repay in kind.
Speakin' with a forked tongue, the devil ain't heaven

I'mma take it to the furthest degree.
The menace to society ain't goin' quietly.
