Biscuits and gravy, made me a man
Ohhh biscuits and gravy, made me all that I am And don't have an egg, no, it's somethin you've always been

Don't you go threatnin' don't you go messing with me You'd better close you eyes 'cause somethins' comin' you shouldn't see

Biscuits and gravy, fit for a king ohhh biscuits and gravy, simple and clean But you stepped on my gravy ohhh now I gotta get mean

Don't you go threatnin' don't you go messing with me
You'd better close your eyes, somethins' comin' you shouldn't see

Biscuits and gravy, made me a man
And don't have an egg, no, it's what you've always

Biscuits and gravy, made me a man
And don't have an egg, no, that's what you've always

Don't you come threatnin' don't you come messing with me
You'd better close your eyes 'cause somethins' comin'
you shouldn't see
