Wake up early, no time to waste
Grab some food along the way to see me thru
Brush your hair back, from your face
I promise to come home again from work to you

Can't help wondering if it's my time
Always something calm I see in you
Constant dangers always on your mind

But I'll stand so tall...for you

Alarm rings loudly turns my stomach sick
Never know exactly what it's all about Fire's building, make it double quick Running in as everyone's running out Mass confusion all around, everything fades black to blue
Shout I love you as it crashes down
But I'll stand... so tall... for you
It's what I do

My broken heart will never stop beating for you
I hope the pride you feel tonight will see you thru to the end
Where we can meet again and start brand new

And I'll stand so tall for you
And I'll trip and fall for you
It's what I do

end
Where we can meet again and start brand new
