"The Ancient Enemy"

goddess of mass annihilation brings me dark salvation
i have seen her scales though she hides them well her eyes give the truth away she is my everything ill make you all her slaves the ancient enemy has risen once again summoned to breed the worlds destruction creature of seduction ive bound our hearts and been torn apart i know she will be the death of me she is reptilian ill crucify your race
the ancient enemy has risen once again i cannot begin to describe the way i feel for her inside tearing out the heart that i hide corruption of the soul is mine nothing left to do but to die and see whats on the other side she found a way to concur my pride for her ill make this sacrifice
you will bow down to me
the ancient enemy
will rule the night again
