Black demoness she is.
Crawling around with my blood on her lips.
and if there is snow on the ground.
You will hear the razor on the mirrors sound.
and we can fuck until we die.
A thousand lives in a single night.
and I can feel the other side.
Shining down like moonlight.
Inside her I am free.
Right where I want to be.
Shes my lover and my enemy.
My hands around her throat and I can feel her slip.
I see hell behind her eyes.
but there is heaven between her hips.
Pushing her face in the pillow again.
Until I pull her hair just right.
and fall in love again to her sighs.
Inside her I am free.
Right where I want to be.
Shes my lover and my enemy.
