Verse 1

I think everybody knows
When they've got something right
I think everybody feels it
When they don't even try

Pre-Chorus

But I got lucky enough to find you
And so much of me to give

Chorus

I can't ever find
The words to say
You changed my life
In ways that I can't explain
How lost I was
Don't need no one
But you

Post Chorus

Can you stay, stay, stay with me

Verse 2

I think that everybody hurts
A little bit everyday
I think that everybody needs somebody
To never ever turn away

Pre-Chorus

But I got lucky enough to find you
And so much of me to give

Chorus

I can't ever find
The words to say
You changed my life
In ways that I can't explain
How lost I was
Don't need no one
But you

Post Chorus

Can you stay, stay, stay with me

Bridge

And it's you

I never thought we'd

Find each other

You

Can you stay with me

I see life and love in technicolor

Never want to find another

Chorus

I can't ever find

The words to say

You changed my life

In ways that I can't explain

How lost I was

Don't need no one

But you

Post Chorus

Can you stay, stay, stay with me
