Iâ€™ve sent out more correspondence
Much more than Iâ€™ve received
I wish that I could hear the chorus
Just to know what they sing for us
They all know how we should be
But theyâ€™re not in proximity
When you find that change is constant
Will you shun complacency
And drift away upon four wheels
Across the earth until you feel
Youâ€™ve found a place youâ€™ll always heal?
But wait...
Wonâ€™t you have to move again?
Wonâ€™t you have to move?
Wonâ€™t you have to move again?
Youâ€™ll have to find a changing end
When you find that change is constant
Will you shun complacency
And drift away upon four wheels
Across the earth until you feel
Youâ€™ve found a place youâ€™ll always heal?
But wait...
Wonâ€™t you have to move again?
Wonâ€™t you have to move?
Wonâ€™t you have to move again?
Youâ€™ll have to find a changing end
