I can see you lyin' facin' me
With your finger lightly tracin' me
And you said to tell you honestly
Had a feelin' this was meant to be

But the burnin' fever made me sway
It was nothin' that I'd ever say
And the lava boiled into the sea
Had a feelin' this was meant to be

Never did I think that I was wrong
Even when I heard your broken song
I just thought you changed invisibly
Had a feelin' this was meant to be
Had a feelin' this was meant to be
