"It's Alright To Fail"

Out on the corner you look so pale
Your ghost is wandering home
But oh, baby, itÂ's alright to fail
Your tongue is twisted
Your teeth are nails
They drove your voice in your throat
But oh, baby, itÂ's alright to fail
Tell me, donÂ't leave
Tell me, tell me
Your heart is beating
I hear it pound
If youÂ've got something to say
Oh, baby, please donÂ't let me down
Tell me, donÂ't leave
Tell me, tell me
The night is coming
I hear the wail of people crying alone
But oh, baby, itÂ's alright to fail
Oh, baby, itÂ's alright to fail
