It was never easy, nice and breezy
For me then
You seemed so bold and honest
I got so nervous holding your hand

Can we dream together
Like we did when the night was young?
I'm light as a feather
And my song has just begun

In the bright days of summer
Hiding under your straw hat
You were cold and told me never ever
Talk to you like that

Can we dream together
Like we did when the night was young?
I'm light as a feather
And my song has just begun

Can't we make it easy?
It's not hard
It's not hard

Can we dream together
Like we did when the night was young?
I'm light as a feather
And my song has just begun

And my song has just begun
And my song has just begun
