Lookin' back I don't remember
Anythin' from last September
But I see your eyes still glowin'
With a pain that kept on flowin'
But lookin' back I don't remember

There are times you seem to be here
In a dream you meet me somewhere
And you say you're fine, don't worry
But you move on in a hurry
And lookin' back I don't remember

When the sun set on the last year
I could see it fallin' like a tear
And it took you down into the sea
With a kind of strange finality
But lookin' back I don't remember
