Save your breath for the crowd
Though your heart's filled with pain
It was always the same
Why pretend that it's changed?
Now you sit there in doubt
Is it worth it to stay
When that voice is so loud
Just saying "run away"?
Painted faces in other times
Lit on stages by candlelight
Sang their songs out every night in the theatre
Did you think I'd walk out if the sky broke with rain?
Save your breath for the crowd
All these words are in vain
Painted faces in other times
Lit on stages by candlelight
Sang their songs out every night in the theatre
Painted faces in other times
Lit on stages by candlelight
Sang their songs out every night in the theatre
