Stay if you want and hide
Stay cause it's cold outside
But soon, soon...
You'll tell me this place is safe
And tell me you still have faith
But soon, soon...
The melody that sounds so cruel, so mean
Will turn into a playful tune and set you free
Stay if the forces pull
Stay cause the moon is full
But soon, soon...
The melody that sounds so cruel, so mean
Will turn into a playful tune and set you free
The melody that sounds so cruel, so mean
Will turn into a playful tune and set you free
