"Walk On"

Too late to be sorry
Too late to try again
No way to deny it
Why not take it on the chin

And walk on

One day it was something
Now it's not anything
No way to replace it
Why not take it on the chin

And walk on
And walk on

Don't be so sad and grave
I know you're bold and so brave

That's life as you know it
That's how it's always been
No way to escape it
Why not take it on the chin

And walk on
And walk on
