It's been one year
I know well
Since I heard
The midnight bell

From your window
On the square
Open to
The midnight air

My home far away
I'll go back someday

When there's nothing
I can hold
When the rainy
Sky turns cold

My home far away
I'll go back someday
My home far away
I'll go back to stay

Why I left the
Wishing well
Is a thing I'll Never tell

My home far away
I'll go back someday
My home far away
I'll go back to stay
