I don't know what you've been told
But growing up's just getting old
And it don't make a difference if you take the time to think

Running round in circles that are different every time
I don't think you need reminding
We're drawn from the same line

There isn't any air to clear
I'm standing still and waiting here

Can't stop the way I'm thinking
Can't help the way I'm feeling
One thing that I know
Growing up's just getting old

I know you don'y have politics
But there's one thing that you can't miss
No- one can afford to make a difference anymore

Play a game that I don't know
You've got to make your efforts show
Think you have the answers?
Well it's nicew to know you tried

There isn't any air to clear
I'm standing still and waiting here

Can't stop the way I'm thinking
Can't help the way I'm feeling
One thing that I know
Growing up's just getting old
