There's a place inside my soul
There's a place that's not quite whole
And it seem sit's here to stay
There's a place inside my soul
There's a place that's not quite whole
And it seems it's hear to stay
It grows a little everyday
And it's getting bigger
It's getting bigger
It's getting bigger
But let's don't go there
Let's don't go, you can't compete
Let's don't go, you lose your bet
Let's don't go, it makes you wet

And I know nobody wants to know from rain
There's a place inside my head
There's a place I go instead
And I feel the need to be
There anyway, the feeling
Grows everyday and it's getting bigger
It's getting bigger
It's getting bigger
But let's don't go there
Let's don't go, you can't compete
Let's don't go, you lose your bet
Let's don't go, it makes you wet
And I know nobody wants to know from rain
