Well I heard about another place
Another world with another face
Where hate is balanced with affection
And you're free to love without protection
There comes a time
When life has gotta give up
There's comes a day
When it's all gotta turn around
And I'm feeling my time
Is gonna come come
So today I take a look around
I feel no touch I hear no sound
And there's another here that's clean and pure
But I'll never know until they find a cure
So I can open up my eyes
Never worry what is wrong or right
Step inside a state of mind and have a piece of mind
There comes a time when life has gotta give it up
There comes a day

When it's all gotta turn around
And I'm feeling my time
Is gonna come come come
There comes a time
When life has gotta give it up
There comes a day
When it's all gotta turn around
Oh and I'm feeling my time is gonna come come
There comes a time when life has gotta give it up
There comes a day when it's gotta turn around
And I'm feeling my time is gonna come come come
Yea yea
My time is gonna come
So I can open up my eyes
Step inside a state of mind
Yea and have a piece of mind
Open up
Step inside have a little
Time turn around, time
Time turn around
Time turn around
