(Chorus)

Chocolate covered candy kisses they keep me reminiscing all I want is what you're giving so in love and you're the reason there's no more lonely season lately boy you drive me crazy, think I want to be your baby (repeat) Saw you in a club last night, all you did was smile at me, kept looking at each other, and right when you were coming to ask me to dance my dad said I had to go. And before I left I looked into your eyes and mouthed I'm so sorry. You looked into my eyes and mouthed don't worry about it. I kept thinking of you in the club last night. Couldn't be happier just wishin you were here w/ me Than my phone rings and I think....
(chorus) And the next thing I know we are on our first date and I'm still thinking about the night in the club, and still singing in my mind (chorus) mm mm be your baby
