A new generation and the whole world's shakin'

We wereborn in flames, maiden names

Suburban homes, make your bones

Bite your lip, take the fifth

Know your rights, its your life now

Don't let them take you down

Its a beautiful day

Don't let them take you down

Its a beautiful day

Hurricanes, love in vain

Murphy's law,days of war

Crash and Burn, live and learn

Fill the void,girls and boys now

Don't let them take you down

Its a beautiful day

Don't let them take you down

All the people, all the people run

All the while were trying to find the sun

Its a beautiful day

Don't let them take you down

its a beautiful day

Don't let them mess you round

Its a beautiful day

Don't let them take you down

Its a beautiful day

Don't let them take you down

A lost generation and the whole world is shakin ah ha,

don't let them take you down

A bad reputation and a dime store nation ah ha,

don't let them take you down

And its my generation and the world is breakin' my heart,

don't let them take you down

A lost generation and the whole world's shakin'
