There's a girl smoking cigarettes
Looks like you, she looks like you
There's a feeling that I can't forget Coming through
Baby blue

Well they tore another building down
It's nothing new
This town is through

There's a feeling I get when I talk to you mama
So we're going out west where the winds won't harm us now
And the car is in the lane
We'll never be the same

The stores are setting up for Halloween
Back at school the kids are cool
Painted ponies in this one horse town
Are getting old
I've been bought and sold

There's a feeling I get when I talk to you mama
So we're going out west where the winter winds won't harm us
There's a feeling I get when I walk with you baby
So I hang around til the fall
And I'll be there when you call
