The cocaine cowboy is going back to war
Another strip mall opens on route 4
Call it love baby on your cyber screen
Mother nature is trying to get clean
Put the lawyers on the phone

When you tell me there's a new world order
And I feel like I'm the only one
Take a picture of the sons and daughters now
In this generation

She dances slowly totally exposed
He hides his anger in thousand dollar clothes
And they'll always be alone

People tell me there's a new world order
Get your freedom baby on the run
A new addiction for the sons and daughters now
In this generation

And I just can't be happy anymore
Tires of the weekends and the girl next store
Just can' be happy anymore

And I just can be happy anymore
Tires of the weekends
And the boys next store
Just can't be happy anymore
New World Order
