It's been about a year now
Ain't seen or heard from you
I been missin' you crazy
How do you, how do you sleep
I found a letter you wrote me
Still smells just like you
Damn those sweet memories
How do you, how do you sleep
How do you sleep

Tried my best at movin' on
Have yet to find a girl like you
See things now I didn't before
Now I'm wishin' I had more time with you
How do you stay away
Knowin' all I do is think of you
All the things we thought about
Will never happen again, I can just see you

If I had my way I'd come and get you girl
In your favorite car with the missin' top
Remember round my way where we used to fk-park
And did all those things to steal your heart

It's been about a year now
Ain't seen or heard from you
I been missin' you crazy
How do you, how do you sleep
I found a letter you wrote me
Still smells just like you
Damn those sweet memories
How do you, how do you sleep
How do you sleep

It's been about a year now
Ain't seen or heard from you
I been missin' you crazy
How do you, how do you sleep
I found a letter you wrote me
Still smells just like you
Damn those sweet memories

How do you, how do you sleep
How do you sleep

Baby, all that I hear from my friends again, again and again
Come and ask 'bout you
They say we saw your girl at the game
And damn we gotta say a big mistake by you
Now I don't mean that you bought it back
But I miss the conversations too
Tell me that you couldn't go to sleep
Can't think, can't eat
Till I come see you

If I had my way I'd come and get you girl
In your favorite car with the missin' top
Remember round my way where we used to fk-park
And did all those things to steal your heart

It's been about a year now
Ain't seen or heard from you
I been missin' you crazy
How do you, how do you sleep
I found a letter you wrote me
Still smells just like you
Damn those sweet memories
How do you, how do you sleep
How do you sleep

Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
Oh, oh
(X2)

It's been about a year now
Ain't seen or heard from you
I been missin' you crazy
How do you, how do you sleep
I found a letter you wrote me
Still smells just like you
There's no sweet memories
How do you, how do you sleep
