Tell my boy
I've been thinking about him tonight
A december's day, gone astray
Well, he took the fall
'Cause some things in life
Are still worth a good brawl
Two hearts lost in the fray

Tell the boys
Tell the boys
Tell the boys

Things we don't know
Words lovers say when they're letting go
Dropped through the arms of a thief
The planes fly in low
Taking me down past those tracks in the snow
A december's day, gone astray

Tell the boys!
