At the reservoir, following
A narrow path of light
What keeps us coming back for more
Is always out of sight

And raindrops fall on broken glass
On a tender patch of grass
And from the ashes of the crash
Where all things rest but nothing lasts

Cold raindrops fall
See the wonder of it all
Cold raindrops fall
And you might walk away

Don't you wish that someone wanted
You that way today
A catastrophic blunder
From which you might walk away

Cold raindrops fall
See the wonder of it all
Cold raindrops fall

Something from you I've taken
I have taken
Something from you I've taken
And you might walk away
You might walk away

The tendency is to be let go
Before you come undone
And someday soon they'll light up the woods
And you'll see you're not the only one

Cold raindrops fall
See the wonder of it all
Cold raindrops fall
And you might walk away
And you might walk away
And you might walk away
And you might walk
