Eyes are blurry
Didn't get much sleep
Tossed and turned
Nightmares haunting me
So I drive
A thousand miles
To find
I'm losing my ground
Save myself
Where neons grace the night
Hanging on
To find what's right
What we dream
Is who we are
Finding out
What's worth my star

Where did I go?
I lost myself in Hollywood
Spinning out of control
I'm out of control
What did I do?
To lose myself in Hollywood?
I'm out of control
Yea, I'm out of control

Count the knives in my back
Count the times that I've crashed
Count the blessing I've held
Where do I find myself?
Count the people I know
Count the lies that I've told
Count the memories
What do they see in me?

Coexist
Find my way
Lock myself inside this room for days
And as I drive
Over city lights
I can finally breathe for the first nights

Where did I go?
I lost myself in Hollywood
Spinning out of control
I'm out of control
What did I do?
To lose myself in Hollywood?
I'm out of control
Yea, I'm out of control

Count the knives in my back
Count the times that I've crashed
Count the blessing I've held
Where do I find myself?
Count the people I know
Count the lies that I've told
Count the memories
What do they see in me?

And I'll save
What's left of me
And I'll stay
To give what's left of me
Have what's left of me.

Count the knives in my back
Count the times that I've crashed
Count the blessing I've held
Where do I find myself?
Count the people I know
Count the lies that I've told
Count the memories
What do they see in me?

Count the knives in my back
Count the times that I've crashed
Count the blessing I've held
Where do I find myself?
Count the people I know
Count the lies that I've told
Count the memories
What do they see in me?
