Born with heaven in their eyes
God sent, innocent
The promise of life
Born into this mess we've made
Holding the future
And hope of better days
'Cause these is nothing more beautiful
And wild
Than the dreams that grow in the heart
Of every child

They are the roses
They are the lights that shine
They are the waves that roll in the ocean tide
They are angels
They are souls in flight
They are the hope that
Everything's gonna be alright
They are the roses

Imagine a place
Filled with happy sounds of playgrounds
Where ever child is safe
Where people join hands
And pray that the children
Will all have a chance

In every family, every tribe and every town
We're the keepers of this garden
And we can't let them down

They are the roses
They are the lights that shine
They are the waves that roll in the ocean tide
They are angels
They are souls in flight
They are the hope that
Everything's gonna be alright
They are the roses

Imagine a place
Where all people join hands

Where every child is safe

They are the roses

They are the lights that shine

They are the waves that roll in the ocean tide

They are angels

They are souls in flight

They are the hope that

Everything's gonna be alright

They are the roses
