Boy, i tried to write a letter i just need to make things better and im praying that youll let me work this out tried to call you on your phone and it seems your not at home this is something that we have to talk about here i am finally face to face heres what im trying to say

Chorus
what was i thinking baby?
should have seen the writing on the wall,
never thought you'd ever leave me now i know what were you trying to tell me i thought about everything you said ever since you walked away boy now i know theres no other way to say it baby please lets not delay it boy i know you feel the same its in your eyes since youve been gone my hearts been missing and i hope that you will listen boy with out you i wont make it one more night take me back i was such a fool im dying with out you

what was i thinking baby?
should have seen the writing on the wall,
never thought you'd ever leave me now i know

i cant live my life without you everytihng you said was true should have known it from the start now you own my heart

now i know....

dosnt matter what i do i cant make it without you

should have seen the writing on the wall,
never thought you'd ever leave me now i know
